I. Claim Amendments

Claims 11, 13, 15, 18, 20, 29, 39, and 41 are amended herein under 37 C.F.R §1.116(b)(2) which allows claim amendments to be admitted after final if the amendments present the rejected claims in better form for consideration on appeal. For example, claim 11 is amended to change the grammically incorrect word “include” to the grammically correct word “includes.” In another example, claim 13 is amended to remove the letter “s” off the end of the word “communication.” No new matter is added with the amendments herein. Further, the amendments raise no new issues.

Each of the claims amended herein are amended to correct typographical errors. As such, the amendments should be admitted because they place the claims in better form for consideration on appeal. 37 C.F.R §1.116(b)(2)
